

Autism Awareness

We had the pleasure of welcoming in Paula Holden from 'Touch the Spectrum' on Monday to support us with our Autism Awareness day. She began by talking to the children about autism, how to celebrate our differences and how to help each other.

Throughout the day she met with parents and worked with Before/After school club, dinner supervisors, teaching assistants and teachers.

It was a really informative and useful day.

